

County Seat	Tucson
Other Cities and Towns	POro Valley, Marana
Year Established	1864
Area	9,187 sq mi (Census)

County History: With its establishment in 1864, Pima County was one of Arizona's four original counties. The discovery of both silver and gold in the area helped drive early development in the County. The County's unique position in the west, where the Rocky Mountains and the Sonoran Desert meet, allows it to be a popular spot for tourists and residents alike. Pima County is home to the University of Arizona, Saguaro National Park, and Mount Lemmon.
